

CLEP Testing Opportunity

What? The College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) allows students to receive college credit for what they already know.

Who? AP Students who tested in May 2018 and will be returning to an OCPS school Fall 2018:
AP English Language & Composition—students who received a 2 or 3
AP Psychology—students who received a 2
AP U.S. History—students who received a 2 or 3
AP Spanish Language & Culture—students who received a 2 (There is no CLEP Prep for this exam. Students will only need to attend on Thursday, July 26th for testing.)

When? July 23-26, 2018 — There will be three days of preparation for the CLEP Test, July 23-25 from 8:00 AM—12:00 PM. The CLEP Test will be given on Thursday, July 26, 2018. Students must attend all three days of prep in order to take the test on Thursday. (If you are registering for the Spanish Language test, you do NOT need to attend July 23–25. AP Spanish Language students need only attend on July 26 for testing.)

Please note: This is the only time the CLEP test for AP U.S. History will be offered. CLEP Testing will be offered again in September and November for AP English Language, AP Psychology, and AP Spanish Language only.

Where? Edgewater High School, Timber Creek High School, and Oak Ridge High School

Cost? FREE! This is a $120 value!
